Man found guilty, mentally ill in daughter's death

Feb 26, 2011 8:18pm

LAS VEGAS (AP) - A Las Vegas man has been found guilty of first-degree murder but mentally ill in the March 2008 stabbing death of his 12-year-old daughter.

The Las Vegas Review-Journal reports Clark County District Judge Elissa Cadish reached the verdict Tuesday after an eight-day bench trial.

William Redman will be confined to prison and given psychiatric treatment as he awaits sentencing April 27. He faces 20 years in prison to life without parole.

Redman, a Jehovah's Witness, believed his daughter, Gloria, would be resurrected three days after he repeatedly plunged a knife into her neck at the family's trailer at Road Runner RV Park.

He was found sitting outside the trailer with self-inflicted wounds to his arms, wrists and neck.

Defense attorneys argued he was not guilty by reason of insanity.
